

The Belt and Road Initiative

Overview

The Belt and Road (B&R) Initiative is an important national development strategy announced in 2013 that aims to promote co-operation on all-round connectivity among B&R countries and regions in areas including policy co-ordination, infrastructure connectivity, unimpeded trade, financial integration, people-to-people bonds, as well as co-operation in new fields.

Under “one country, two systems”, Hong Kong plays a pivotal role in connecting the Chinese Mainland with the rest of the world. As an active participant, contributor and beneficiary of the B&R Initiative, Hong Kong is fully aligned with the eight major steps taken by our country to support high-quality B&R development, with focus on co-operation in new areas such as green development, digitalisation, innovation and health. Hong Kong leverages its unique advantage of having strong support of the Motherland while being closely connected with the world, giving full play to its role as a “super connector” and “super value-adder”, and capitalising its position as a functional platform for the B&R Initiative.

Hong Kong’s top-level supervision work

- In December 2017, the HKSAR Government signed the “Arrangement between the National Development and Reform Commission and the Government of the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region for Advancing Hong Kong’s Full Participation in and Contribution to the Belt and Road Initiative”. The Arrangement focuses on six key areas, namely finance and investment, infrastructure and maritime services, economic and trade facilitation, people-to-people bonds, taking forward the Guangdong-Hong Kong-Macao Greater Bay Area Development and enhancing collaboration in project interfacing and dispute resolution services. A Joint Conference mechanism has also been set up to serve as a platform of direct communication between the HKSAR Government and the Central Authorities for regular dialogues on the work priorities and proposals with respect to Hong Kong’s participation in the B&R Initiative.
- The Chief Executive established the Steering Group on Integration into National Development in 2022, under which the Working Group on Belt and Road Development chaired by the Secretary for Justice was set up to proactively take forward the high-quality development of co-operation in such areas as trade and commerce and professional services between Hong Kong and B&R countries.
